

Hi everyone,

I'm the creator of Modern Life of Immortal Demons, Hirore. This is my first time creating an manhua, and translating it into English, because of lacking of experience, I'm sincerely looking for someone who can help me to make this manhua better. If you're willing to provide me any suggestions about the translation and the plots, or you have any questions, please contact me at team@now-do.com, or you can leave your contact way here, so that we can discuss some details.

You will have chance to get gifts as a reward.I look forward to your support!
